Your full driving licence

1 Surname

This is your surname, as recorded on the driver's record.

2 First names

These are your first names, as recorded on the driver's record.

3 Date of birth, place of birth

These are the details recorded on the driver's record.

4 Dates and issuing authority

The date shown in 4a is the date the photocard was issued. 4b shows the date the photocard must be renewed. The authority that issued the licence is shown in 4c. In Great Britain that is the DVLA.

5 Driver number

GARDN 605109 C99 LY 60

A = This is the first five letters of your surname. If your surname has fewer than five letters, the remaining spaces will be made up using the number 9 (for example, MAN99).

B = The first and last numbers are the year of your birth. The second and third numbers are the month of your birth. (If you are female, '5' is added to the second number and the total used as the second digit. So if you are a woman born in October the second and third numbers would be 60.) The fourth and fifth digits are the day of the month you were born on.

C = This is the first two initials of your first names. If you have only one initial, the second character will be a '9'.

D = Computer check digits, randomly produced as a security measure.

E = This is the licence issue number, which will increase by one with every licence issued.

6 Holder's photo

This is a digital copy of the photo you provided with your application.

7 Holder's signature

This is a digital copy of your signature on the application form.

8 Holder's address

This shows your permanent address in Great Britain.

9 Categories of vehicles

The letters in capitals show the categories of vehicle you can drive according to the European Community Directive. The smaller letters show the national categories of vehicles you can drive.

10 Issuing authority stamp

This is the stamp of the authority that issued the licence.

11 Ghost image of photograph

This image of the holder's photograph is a security feature. It prevents the licence from being copied.

12 Bar code

The bar code links a photocard with its counterpart document.
